

Professional Sports and Mediation: Resolute Mediator Faustin Pipal Interviewed by ESPN

February 25, 2011—Resolute Chicago mediator, Faustin Pipal, was interviewed this week by ESPN Sports Editor, and attorney, Lester Munson for a story Munson and ESPN are doing on mediation in the world of professional sports. The focus of ESPN's piece is the mediation involving the NFL owners and the NFL Players Union, as well as the dispute between a group of victims of Bernie Madoff's fraud and the New York Mets ownership (which is being mediated by former NY Governor Mario Cuomo).